What to expect at the Christmas Masquerade Ball in Manchester

Kickstart your night of masked revelry with a VIP welcome from our costumed performers. There's a sparkling glass of Prosecco ready for you.

All-inclusive beer, wine and soft drinks keep the atmosphere buzzing while you indulge in a delicious 3-course candlelit dinner.

During dinner, a live singer serenades you with timeless classics and, between courses, costumed performers entertain you with their skillful dance moves.

Some parties fizzle out after dinner... but this is Manchester, and our Christmas Masquerade Ball is only just beginning.

A live party band takes to the stage and sets the tempo for dancing late into the night. Meanwhile, professional croupiers are handing out free just-for-fun casino chips at the Blackjack and roulette tables.

Still wearing your mask at midnight? As the clock strikes twelve, it's time to reveal your true identity!

The dress code

It's all about the masks. Do wear one — half-faced, obviously, otherwise dinner may be an issue. Simple and elegant or intricate and elaborate. Choose whichever style you like.

As for the rest of your outfit... Well, we love it when our guests dress up, although if a full-on Venetian costume is not your thing, black tie and evening wear will do nicely.

The drinks are included!

Standard ticket £135 (+ VAT)

Unlimited wine, beer and soft drinks are included in the ticket price.
