Oxygen Event Services, this Christmas, brings to The Steel Yard a Mob/
Prohibition theme fit for London...

Mr Charles Sabini, London's most notorious 1920's gangster, invites you to a party
you can not refuse.

It is 1928. The Steel Yard, a London Victorian warehouse is flowing with liquor, bound for our teetotal Yankee friends. Business has never been so good for Mr Sabini and he wishes to celebrate in style at the heart of the action.
Forget the American mob parties, with their moonshine, London is the place to be.

London is ready to roar!

DESIGN AND STYLING

As guests arrive, they will be met by Mr Sabini's own personal security, guarding his legitimate warehouse operations. Guests will need to provide a secret password to discover Mr Sabini's true enterprise.

Your guests will be handed tokens for the Casino tables at reception, where a 1920's swing band will be performing for their entertainment.

The venue will be decorated with tea chests and packing cases of fine liquor, ready to be exported.

Wanted posters of Mr Sabini's "associates" will be stuck to the walls – if you send us pictures of your "associates" these can be customised for your party.

READY TO ROAR

For informal parties, food will be served from violin case trays. Seated dinners will have table centres made from feather boas, cocktail glasses, and cigar boxes.

After the reception the casino will open on the mezzanine level where guests can chance their arm at roulette and black jack. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

As the night draws to an end, The Steel Yard will be raided by police; sirens blast – closing Mr Sabrini's operation!
